

Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) Autoimmune Association

Introduction:

This is a legally binding document, known as a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA), established between two or more parties who agree to maintain the confidentiality of sensitive information disclosed exclusively among them.

Non-Disclosure Agreement:

Under this agreement (the Non-Disclosure Agreement), both:

- First Party: The Board of Directors of the Autoimmune Association
- Address: United Arab Emirates
- Second Party: All members of the Autoimmune Association (AIA)
- Address: United Arab Emirates

Agree not to disclose any confidential information exchanged between the First Party and the Second Party in accordance with the terms outlined in the following clauses:

1. Confidential Information refers to any information disclosed by one party to the other for the purposes of the Autoimmune Association, provided that it is clearly marked or identified as confidential.
2. Both parties commit not to circulate or misuse confidential information for any purpose other than that related to the Association's community work, without the explicit consent of the other party.
3. Either party may disclose confidential information if required by a court order, provided that the other party is notified in writing beforehand.
4. This agreement remains in effect for a period of three (3) years, until the next elections are held in accordance with the Association's bylaws.
5. This agreement and the relationship between the parties are subject to the laws and regulations of the United Arab Emirates.

- ✚ By accepting membership in the Association, the member acknowledges their agreement to the terms and conditions of the Code of Conduct and Ethics of the Autoimmune Association and fully understands that any violation may lead to dismissal from the Association or legal accountability in accordance with the laws of the country.

